

Lulu Lane by Corey Yoder
Live. Love. Laugh

To get to my Grandma Lulu's house, you had to travel down a long gravel lane with corn fields on one side and a grape arbor on the other. There was an apple orchard beside the house where we picked apples in the fall, and next to the huge weeping willow tree in the backyard, there was a swimming pool. Our summer days were spent swimming with cousins and taking long adventure walks on the many trails in the woods surrounding her home.

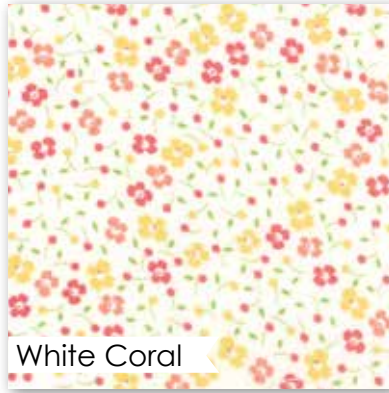

Lulu Lane brings back my cherished memories of the time spent on that lane, memories of golden days, bright flowers and lazy afternoons. The quilts for Lulu Lane are named Backroads, Sunny, Fairweather and Apple Creek as a reminder of those wonderful, long days of my childhood.

I hope you will remember your own delightful days and memories of old as you sew with Lulu Lane.
