

Enamoured Toweling

Pieces to Treasure BY JENELLE KENT

I do love the colour red; you could say that I am rather enamoured with it.

It is synonymous with Christmas, my favourite time of the year, also just perfect for projects with a patriotic flavour. In addition, it blends beautifully with a collection of classic neutrals, and it is also the colour of love. What's not to love about that?

I have designed this collection of 18" wide cotton towelings for table runners, bags, pillows, table napkins, Christmas stockings and decor, bunting and tea towels with special events in mind.

So, start planning your decorations and begin stitching for your Christmas, Valentine's, and Patriotic gatherings, using this collection, and you might just become as enamoured with these towelings, as I am.
