Things Above is a collection filled with reminders of truth & hope, and as the name states - a gentle nudge of where to fix our minds and thoughts...not on earthly things but on things above!

This colorful collection will have you working with scripture panels and creation-filled prints from sunshine to waves and raindrops. Playful florals top off the collection, and a large statement panel is going to be an encouraging focal point of so many quilts.

Things Above also has projects like a pillow bundle and quilts that showcase both panel options. It is my hope that this collection is a blessing to all who come across it, and may it remind us to fix our minds on Things Above!
